Dr. Todd and Kristin Evans are award-winning authors, speakers, and disability parents. They are passionate about empowering other parents of children with disabilities to thrive, as well as equipping ministry leaders and professionals to serve disability parents. They both earned their MA in Christian Spiritual Formation at Wheaton College, IL and served together in church ministry. Todd has over a decade of ministry experience, including church consulting and teaching college. He received his PhD from Vanderbilt University and currently manages his own business. Kristin is a Licensed Masters Social Worker experienced in couples, child & family, substance abuse, and crisis counseling. They enjoy the outdoors and traveling together.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

"Todd and Kristin were such an encouragement to our hearts. They shared the hurt and the joy in their journey of parenting special needs and it was so good to know we are not in this alone!"

-Matt and Laura,
Disability Parents

"Todd and Kristin poured into the parents at our Wonderfully Made Family Camp for special needs to strengthen their marriages. They were transparent and shared from their personal experiences and encouraged the parents to get engaged in the interactive discussion. The parents couldn't say enough on how much they learned and appreciated Todd and Kristin."

-Beth Castille, Director of
Wonderfully Made Family Camp
